ALL ARE WELCOME to our weekly services.

The churches, both nationally and locally, are getting worked up about unity and morality. I wonder how they affect you?

I mean, do you get worked up or concerned about the fact that a large village like Stansted with a fairly low attendance at Christian worship should none-the-less have five different denominational buildings (well four actually because we Methodists are blessed by the use of the Friends' Meeting House), five different styles of worship and five different church structures? Do you want to shake each church in turn and say to them all 'Get your act together!?' I confess I do. In some ways we seem further apart than ten years ago, and now the arguments and discussions are muddled by those who tell us we should 'celebrate our differences!' If that means that we should celebrate our different gifts and different attitudes then I'm ready to applaud because I believe God needs us all if we really are to be His Body - the hand cannot say to the feet 'I don't need you!' But to use that as an excuse for keeping denominations when the variety and difference runs in and out of every separate group leaves me cold. I don't believe the world will believe until we show we can be made one in Christ Jesus. AND YOU OUT THERE: What do you think?

We've also been put on the spot about morality by an important speech to the House of Lords by the Archbishop of Canterbury. As soon as you start to discuss right and wrong, as soon as you begin to speak about eternal truths, virtues, values and beliefs, we are divided again. Divided as Christians from one another, divided parents from schools, people from government, faith from faith. I guess we must stop blaming one another and recall the old biblical truth: 'All have sinned'. We are all to blame if our community is in decline.

And if we are all to blame, we must all share the task of putting things right. We do that by being good neighbours, preferring one another (valuing each other), volunteering to help others and living and loving in such a way that the beauty of God is seen in us. It might even make the churches look at unity again! AND YOU OUT THERE: You're to blame as well, so get cracking!

Michael Hayman

CHURCHES TOGETHER in Stansted

The A.G.M. of C.T.S. is on 10th September at 8 p.m. in the U.R.C. Lecture Hall. After the reports there will be refreshments with wine and musical entertainment. Everyone interested in Christian Unity in the village is welcome.

The C.T.S. Harvest Service this year will be in the United Reformed Church at 6 p.m. on September 29th led by the Rev. Margaret McKay. The service will be followed by supper in the Lecture Hall.

BRADWELL PILGRIMAGE

Saturday 6th July 1996

Future Events

"Ah well" it's all over, or is it? This year the Bradwell Pilgrimage theme was 'Jesus then and now'. We may not be able to influence great world decisions, but we can influence the Christian action within our own area. How about a smile when we meet our fellow Christians or members of other faiths or none that we know, and if we are really brave, how about "Good morning/afternoon God be with you or Peace be with you".

The day started with a warm welcome from the Rt. Rev. Laurie Green, Bishop of Bradwell, followed by an invitation to be part of the Pilgrimage by the Rector of Bradwell, and so the pilgrims left St. Thomas' Church to the rousing hymn "Onward Christian Soldiers" accompanied by a Salvation Army Band.

As we approached St. Peter's on the Wall we were all given a different coloured sticker. The service at the Chapel reminded us of a Christian faith coming through St Cedd and the Celtic origins. Among the hymns we had one from Asia, sung in Urdu-what rhythm! A chant from Taize (Did you see the Bishop of Bradwell singing in sign language?) and a song from South Africa.

The address "Gospel and Culture" was given by Elaine Storkey.

At the exchange of the peace we were asked to find four different colours from our own and exchange the peace - with just under 2,000 people it was a little difficult.

As we sat down for picnic lunches, the skies opened and the rains came. Have you played sardines lately in a marquee?

This year Joan and I visited the Ethona Centre at St. Peter's on the Wall. We would recommend a visit to the centre, it is well worth it.

Next year, 1997, is the 1400th anniversary of the death of St. Columba and the arrival of the Continental Missionary St. Augustine. The speaker will be Cardinal Basil Hume and the theme "Local Mission". Book the date now, Saturday 5th July 1997.

STANSTED CARNIVAL

Carnival was the theme for this years event which raised approximately £1000 for the Stansted Carnival Trust Fund for Needy Children.

The procession brightened a grey and cloudy day with its colourful floats. Led by the Hadleigh Marching Militaire Band the procession wound its way to Stansted Mountfitchet High School where festivities were opened with a bang - a Chinese fire cracker. £200 was collected along the way. The floats were of an extremely high standard: Bentfield County Primary School took the Overall Winners Cup with a Medieval theme of a castle complete with brave knights, dragon, jester and fair maidens; St. Mary's Primary School won the Youth Organisation Cup; Rainbow Playgroup won Highly Commended and the Herts and Essex Hospital won the Other Organisations Cup with a scene of medical mayhem. A new feature this year was the best dressed bicycle category won by Sarah Wallace.

The Grand Draw was a huge success and raised over £400 - many thanks to all our contributors: Monarch Airlines; The Hilton National Hotel; Alders International UK Ltd.; Barnet Fayre; B & R Carpets; Edacom; Elsenham Golf Club; Sir Alan Haselhurst M.P.; Heavylift; Stansted Carpets; Stansted Hairport; Unwins and Trailblazers. A special thanks to the Rose and Crown and the Cock public houses for selling so many tickets.

There were many attractions on the field ranging from fairground rides and tug of war competitions (was there any cheating?) to family games and marquee for the football. The children's fancy dress competition proved popular again. Four year old Annie Burge dressed as a sunflower won the 1-6 year old section and also scooped the overall prize. In the 7 years and over section, Jennifer, Megan and Stacey Park won first prize for their Chinese Dragon.

The Stansted Carnival Annual General Meeting will be held at the Crafton Green Centre at 8 p.m. on Monday 16th September - please come along, have a glass of wine and join the committee in discussing ideas for 1997.

ROYAL BRITISH LEGION
WOMEN'S SECTION

It was Stansted's turn to play hostess to the quarterly Group Meeting on Wednesday, 12th June. In the absence of our President, the Vice-Chairman, Mrs. Janet Hollis, welcomed 46 members from Berden, Birchanger, Clavering, Thaxted and Stansted.

After normal business and branch reports taken by the Group Chairman, Mrs. Vera Levey, Mr. David Martin gave a very interesting talk on his time in Stansted as a child evacuee during World War II when he and his two brothers were billeted on Miss Millie Turner. He spoke of his life in the village and told how the Americans were very kind to all the children and gave them sweets and chewing gum.

Some years ago he and his wife looked round Stansted again, decided to move here and for the past eight years have been living in Millside.

Delicious refreshments were then served and a marvellous raffle drawn. The villages paid many compliments for a "never to be forgotten evening".

The Vice-Chairman took the branch meeting on 20th June. After normal business, including the taking of names for memorial flowers, we occupied our time with a Quiz guessing landmarks from photographs and postcards of various locations and then having refreshments and drawing the raffle.

On Wednesday 14th August in the Day Centre, we are holding a Coffee Morning from 10.30 a.m. - Cakes, Bring and Buy and Raffle - please make a note of the date.

No meeting in August, but on Thursday 19th September we shall hold our annual harvest sale in the Day Centre at 7.30 p.m.

THE SEPTEMBER MOUSE

Sam was called the September mouse because that was when he was born.

He thought it was a rather splendid name. but on occasions (when he was feeling rather silly) he called himself the Tepseember mouse.

Sam liked playing with words and his favourite book was a dictionary. He often tried to see how many different words he could make from his own name.

"Me" was easy and so was "be". So was "meet" and "beet". "Ember" was a bit more difficult. What he really wanted to do was make a word out of all the nine letters in his name, but he just couldn't manage it.

His friends thought he was mad. "I'll come out to play when I've thought of just one more word", he would say.

One day in late September the sky was so blue and the sun so warm that Sam did go out with his friends.

They wandered along the hedgerows eating blackberries and nibbling hazel nuts. They played hide and seek. Sam enjoyed himself so much that he completely forgot about making a list of words.

Perhaps you could make a list of words for Sam instead.

"Season of mists and mellow fruitfulness!"

This the first line of a poem called "To Autumn" by John Keats, who was born in 1795 and died in 1821.

How many fruits can you think of that are ripening in September? Now try this word search for 11 fruits. You can go forwards, backwards or diagonally. The answers are on another page.

STANSTED FUN RUN/WALK
23rd June 1996

The day dawned bright and warm on this, the tenth year, of the Stansted Fun Run/Walk. As is usual, the behind-the-scenes organisation of the day started at 7.00 am with the setting up of posts and signs for the runners/walkers. As the time drew near to the start of the run, excitement mounted as nearly 400 people turned up to participate - our bumper year.

The run attracts people from a wide area so it was particularly pleasing that two local people came in as 'firsts' - Ann Hazell from Sawbridgeworth as the first lady runner at a time of 40.54 minutes and Suzanne Thorogood from Stortford as the first under-16 girl in 55.37 minutes. Waiting for the runners to come in at Bentfield Green, people had the opportunity to enjoy a drink at the 'Rose and Crown' (a generous supporter of the run) and/or a barbecue, or bought raffle tickets for the excellent prizes on display.

It was not lost on the local inhabitants that this is also a 'fun' run as well as a serious event and this year we had our first 'baby'. Young Alistair Williams, aged 7 months, who ran the course with his dad pushing his pram came in at 64 minutes. Also registered for the race for the second year running was Bumble, a Beagle dog, who came in at 97.36 - alas 4 minutes slower than last year.

All this enabled the organisers and yourselves to raise over £2,000 for the designate charities for this year: British Aid for Deprived Children, Cystic Fibrosis and St Clare's Hospice. Without your support and goodwill this could not have been achieved so it's a big 'thank-you' to all who came. However, to improve on our numbers and organisation for next year's event we need your help in this area as well, so if you can join our committee please contact an ecstatic Marion Dyer on 814059.

Waiting for the 'off'

As promised in the July issue I can now report on the Carnival Day. We had a wonderful day selling over 200 doughnuts and cakes which were made by parents and grandparents. Thank you to those who donated the cakes and also to those who visited us on the stand. Many people added to our kilometre of pennies which has now reached nearly 30 metres and will be carried on until September.

As I reported previously, Auntie Joyce retired on 19th July. She was presented with a lovely bouquet of flowers and gardening vouchers which we are sure she will put to good use. A surprise meal was given and was attended by teachers and committee members old and new. We had a lovely evening and a proper chance to say farewell. We hope her visits to the nursery will be just as frequent in the future.

We are looking forward to welcoming our new teacher Caroline Pringle, who will be starting in September.

Caroline previously worked at a Nursery in Kent and with Special Needs children in Harlow. She is also a regular visitor to St. Mary's School attending one to one sessions with special needs children.

We said a special goodbye to a few more children this term who will be going to start primary school in September. A special farewell lunch was held in the last week of term with each child receiving a personal present from the teachers.

The new term will soon be upon us so if you are looking for a Nursery School for your child we have a few remaining places which can be secured by contacting Auntie Helen on 813828.

Have a good summer and we look forward to your continued support.

STANSTED WEA

Our autumn course will be "Settlement Patterns in Essex". The aim of the course will be to study the social geography of the Essex landscape and how farms, villages and market towns have evolved and developed over the centuries. The tutor will be Mr Ken Newman, who writes "Essex is particularly rich in its variety of settlements - plans, building materials, function and development all differ, yet, patterns have been recognised and theories put forward. In this course we shall look at these patterns and theories and explore the casual background". The ten meetings will consist of lectures illustrated by slides and practical work using maps and diagrams; there will be a one-day session of field work.

The course, as usual, will be held on Monday evenings at the Day Centre, starting September 23rd. First meeting enrolment 7.30 pm to 8 pm, lectures start at 8 pm.

We hope to see you all after our long summer break - this course was our first choice and Mr Newman is a very popular and enthusiastic lecturer, and in much demand, so we are hoping for a good enrolment.

If you would like further details please contact Jean McBride, telephone 01279 812214.

On July 4th we all dressed up American style to celebrate. Denise won first prize dressed as stars and stripes while Kenny took boy's first prize as the Sheriff. Everyone made the effort to dress up and we all feasted on Pumpkin Chiffon Pie, Blueberry Muffins, Doughnuts and Pecan Puffs. We also took turns to hit papier mache balls filled with sweets. The sweets were very quickly falling down and just as quickly eaten.

July 11th we were very energetic as we held our Sports at Broome End. A big thankyou to the staff at Broome End for lovely homemade cream cakes and fruit drinks. Amazingly, everybody managed to win a prize.

Our next and final meeting will be on 18th July. On July 20th 47 of us are having a day out in Ely. We will travel by train, a rare event for many of our members, and have lunch by the river at "The Cutter Inn". This will be a family occasion so let's hope we have good weather.

The highlight of the year will be in August when we spend a week together at Camber Sands - more about this in October.

Would all contributors who have computers and wish to publicise their forthcoming events in display form please ensure that their copy measures 55mm x 50mm or 120mm x 50mm.

We would also welcome a report on the event in the next issue as it helps to present a complete picture of the occasion.

HEAL - CANCER CHARITY

Coffee Morning

Wednesday, 25th September

10 o'clock

Stansted Day Centre

HEAL Cancer Charity is a local charity based around the Hertfordshire, Essex and London areas, with its nerve centre at the North Middlesex Hospital. This means that local people will benefit from specialist nursing and professional consultation without having to travel further to other hospitals.

HEAL's first aim is to purchase a Simulator/CT Scanner. With this aid, tumours can be pinpointed and treatment given without damage to the healthy tissue around the infected area.

Contributions of raffle prizes, cakes, or for the Bring-and-Buy Stall will be most welcome on the day at the Day Centre.

Please come, bring your friends and help to support this very worthwhile charity and its special project.
